Memorial Tribute.

The Faculty and Students of Rollins College learn with deep regret of the death of Mr Charles H. Robinson, and desire to put upon record their recognition of his worth, and the sense of bereavement felt by those of us who were associated with him during the years of his membership of this school. He was endowed with scholarly attainments, enthusiastic in the class-room and an inspiration to pupils and teachers. As a student he was straightforward, with an uprightness that could not be shaken, and among his fellow-students his influence was given to all that was noble and good. His courage under physical disabilities was unflinching. As a Christian he was unfailing and tireless.

We tender our heartfelt sympathy to his mother and father, at the same time expressing our sense of satisfaction in the thought that a spirit so high, so self-denying, so consecrated, has found its home in the presence of the Lord whom he loved.

Mrs. C. A. Abbott,
 Mary A. Haraway,
 Morgan L. Brett,
 William E. Burrell.
